

I feel that it is quite important and vital to keep New Jersey's current telemarketing law in its entirety. I am totally against any weakening of the current Do Not Call program.